III Discussion of Williamsburg's Bicentennial

Mayor Harrison announced the planning of a celebration to commemorate the 200th anniversary of the founding of Whitley County.

Whitley County is designating the whole year of 2018 to celebrate the Bicentennial Anniversary; the city is planning its celebration in April 2018.

A meeting is planned for May 4 at 2:00 p.m. in the City Hall Council Room to discuss the anniversary celebration.

IV. Comments

Mayor Harrison's comments

-Walk with the Mayor is April 15th at 10 a.m.

- The annual community Easter Egg Hunt will be April 15th at the Briar Creek Park.
- Opening day for Williamsburg Little League is April 22nd starting at 9:30 a.m.
- Discussed the possibility of putting new sidewalks and walking paths through the city. One idea is to put in sidewalks near Brashear's Market and possibly putting a walking path from Brashear's through the water park property to Walmart.
- Announced that the University of the Cumberlands was recently ranked as the safest college campus in Kentucky.

V. Adjournment

There being no further business a motion to adjourn was made by Councilmember Harris and seconded by Councilmember Stanfill. All voting aye, motion carried.
